Dear Traveller,

Welcome to Chennai!

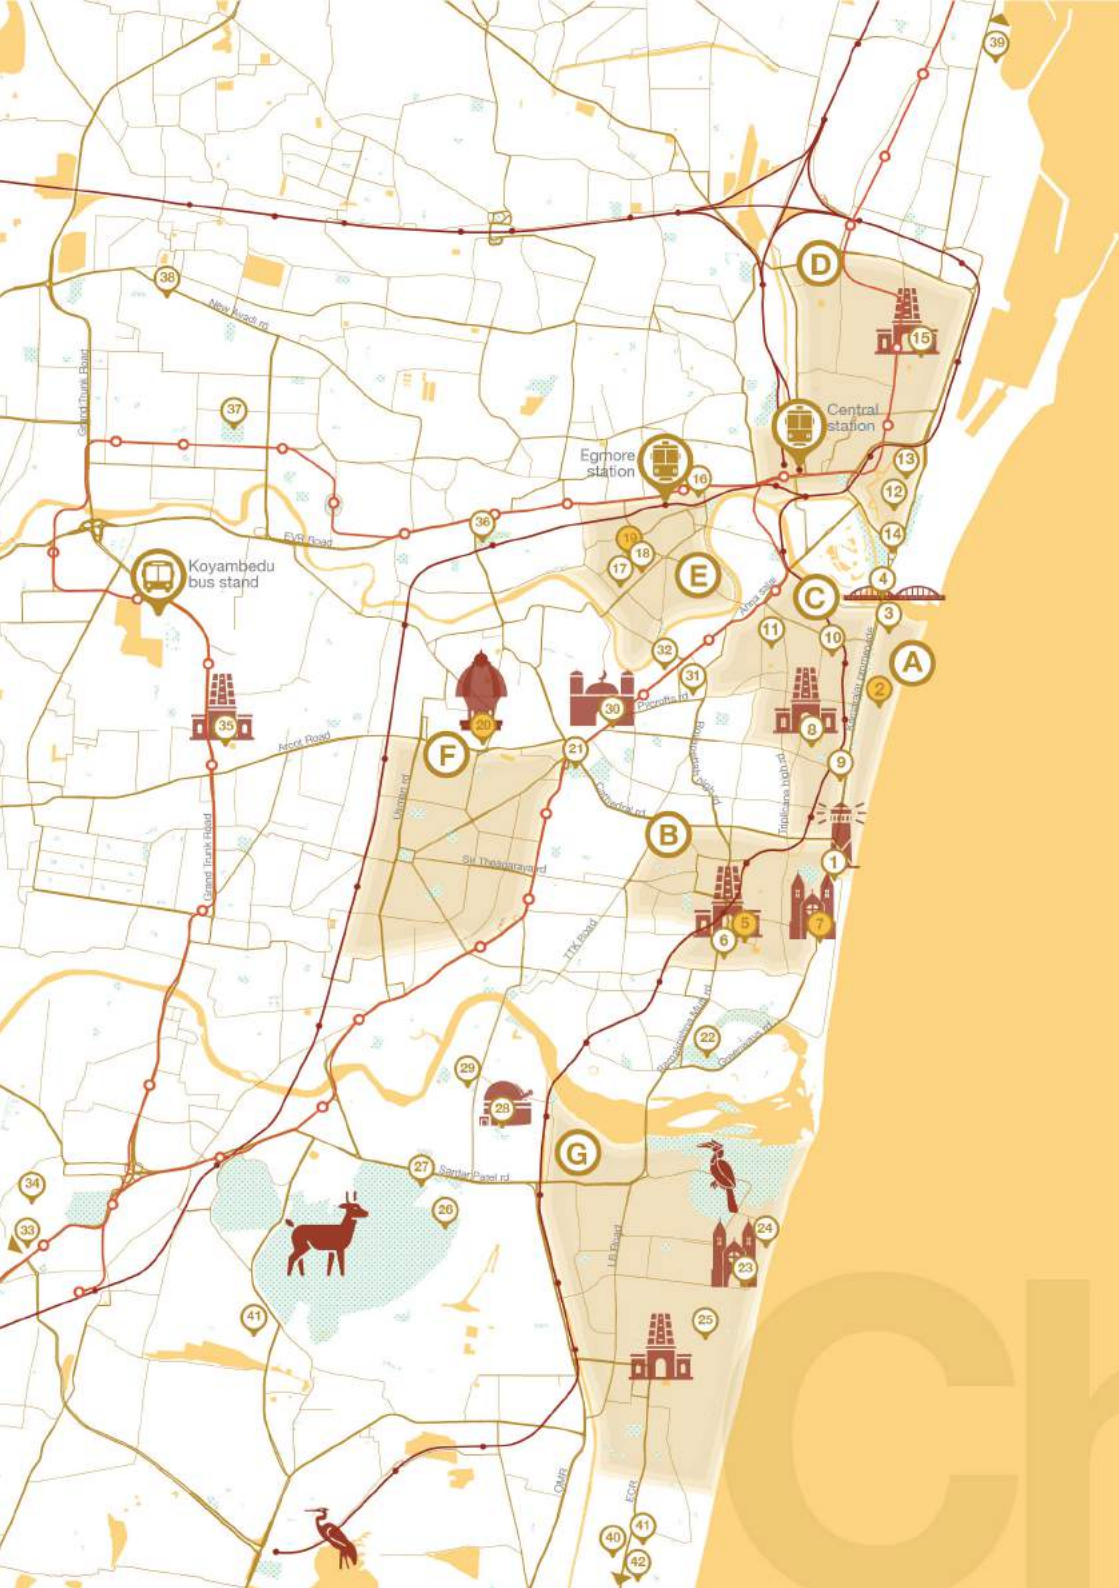

Chennai is more than the capital city of Tami Nadu. Chennai is a 'state of mind', that has something special for everyone visiting it. It is not just its climate, but the friendly people who make it a warm experience to explore India's southernmost metropolis city. While on one side it has a roaring economy with top notch Industries and educational institutions, it is also home to a thriving culture of art, music, and timeless traditions.

And it has every reason to be the most visited Indian city by Foreign Tourists. The world's second largest urban beach of Marina, the sumptuous global cuisines, the drool worthy local eat-lets, the adventure sea sports, the artistic handicrafts, the famous Chennai Super Kings, and so much more! Chennai is quite an emotion that cannot be experienced wholly without paying a visit for real.

This Map of Chennai is a gentle guide to let you experience the city in a wholesome way. The curated list of places to see, experiences to try, food to taste, and objects to buy, will come handy on the GO as a friend on the paper.

South Indian Meals

South Indian meals comprise cuisines of five South Indian states namely Tamil Nadu, Karnataka, Kerala, Andhra Pradesh and Telangana. The base is often the rice, and in Tamil Nadu, the servings are comprised majorly of different gravies and curries (Sambar, Rasam, Kuzhambu, Thayir), side dishes (Kootu, Poriyal, Papad, etc), sweet dishes & accompaniments (Kheer, Kesari, Payasam, etc).

01

Sea and Street food at Marina

Situated on the shorelines of the Bay of Bengal, it is not a surprise that a wide range of seafood delicacies like freshly fried prawns, fishes, masala fish, saraaslat and on the food hubs of Marina beach. Sliced sweet & salt mangoes, chilli bhajjis, roasted corn, masala puffed rice, etc. are notable street bites.

03

South Indian Filter Coffee

Brewed extra strong with plenty of sweetened milk and served in steel cups that sit atop containers known as dabarah, the authentic filter coffee has been a fuelling concoction of South India for centuries now. There are a lot of homegrown brands that serve a variety of blends according to your preference to your preference of keeping it light or strong.

05

13

Idly/Dosa

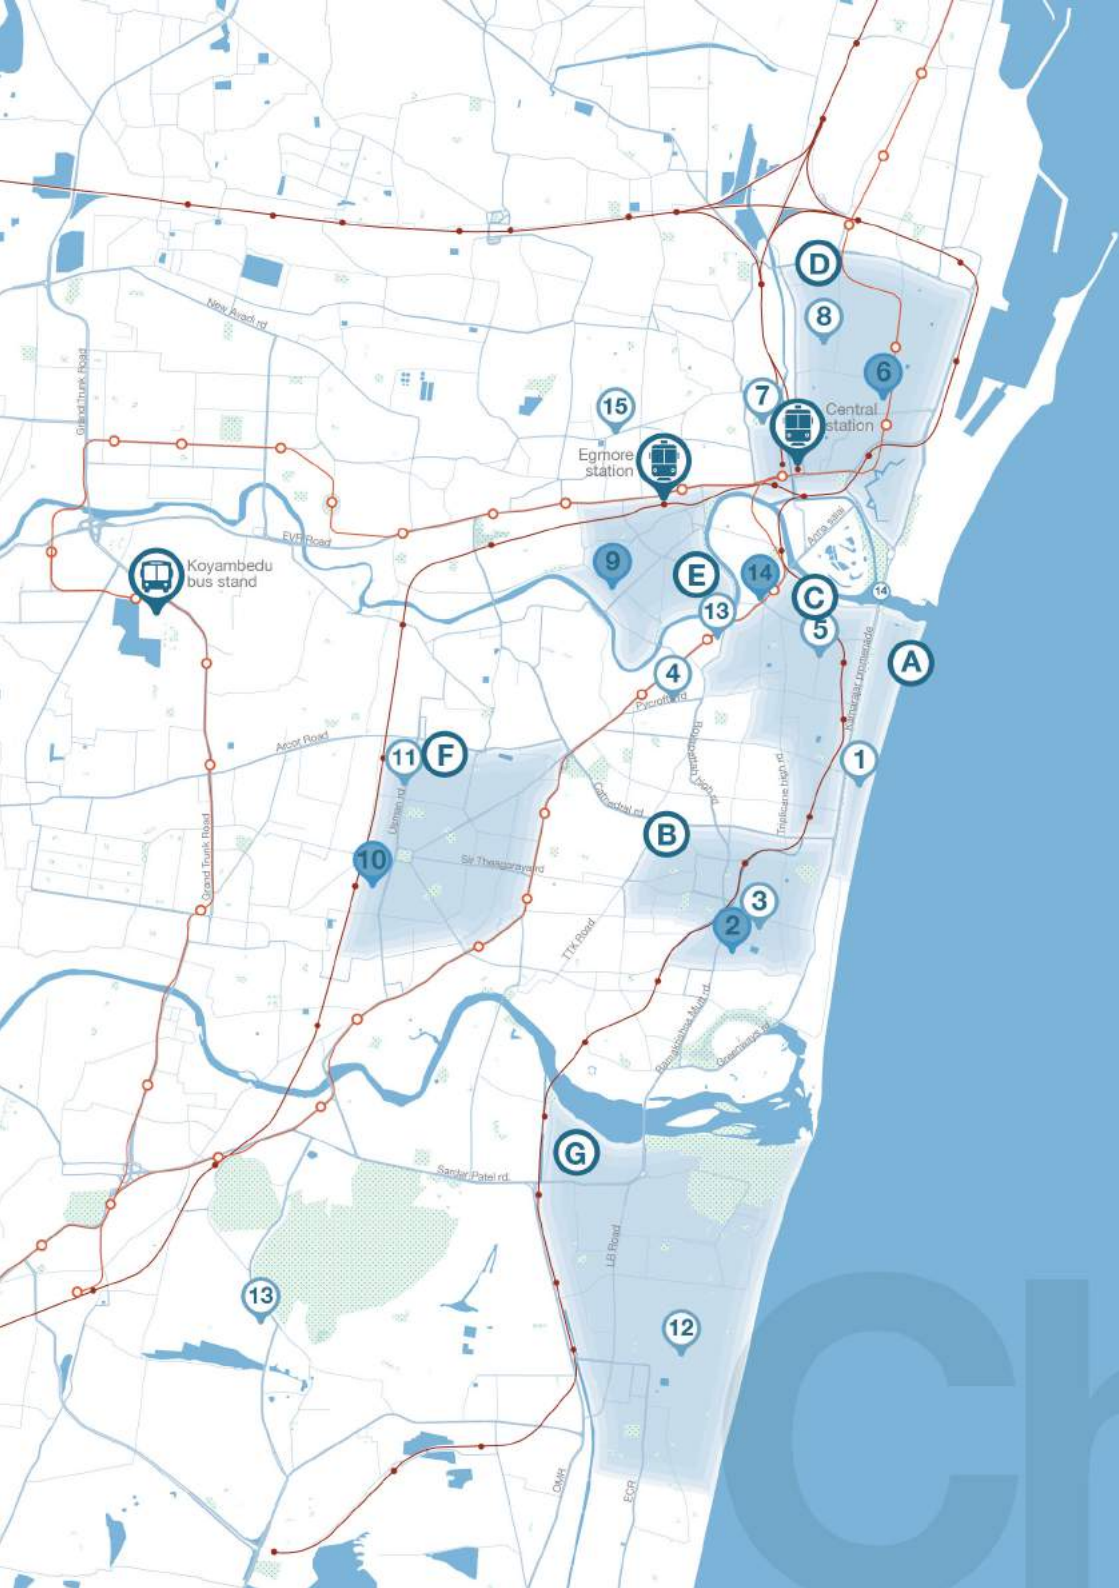

Served with three different chutneys alongside a steaming cup of Sambar, Idlis and Dosas are must-tries when in Chennai. What makes them special apart from the fact that they taste so soft and good, is the easy-to-digest nature of the batter that comprises fermented rice and lentils in the right proportion.

24
25

Biryani

When the hot, steaming Biryani rice is placed in front of you with all its aroma that melts the mood, it is very hard not to drool. There's an Ambur style, Dindigul style, Thalassery style, and many other fusion styles for both vegetarians and non-vegetarians to indulge in.

Golu Bommai

Golu is the festive display of dolls and figurines in South India during the autumn festive season. These displays are typically thematic, narrating a legend from a Hindu text to court life, weddings, everyday scenes and miniature kitchen utensils. Each displayed item in a Golu display is called a Golu doll. These are typically made by rural artisans from clay and wooden materials that are brightly painted. These are available in the temple fronts and are good souvenirs.
